Police accused of targeting bar

■ Paul Hindes outside No 10

BRIDPORT police have come under fire amid concerns their efforts to control drunken behaviour in the run up to Christmas unfairly singled out one town centre bar.

The owner of East Street's No 10 Café Bar Paul Hindes claims to have "lost count" of the number of police visits to his premises during busy times over the period, describing the interest in his venue as feeling like "just harassment."

But Bridport police have denied singling out No 10, insisting police visits were part of a town-wide operation to crack down on drunks.

Launched at the beginning of December, Operation Protect promised police checks across town to ensure landlords were meeting their licensing conditions – one of which is to ensure customers are not allowed to drink too heavily.

But Mr Hindes – who has been in the pub and bar business for more than 40 years – described the police attention on his premises as "very abnormal."

The 69-year-old said: "I have no criticism of local police, we are not anti-police here. But the treatment

by Chris Denne
chris@pemedial.co.uk

we are getting is very abnormal in my experience.

"The police licensing officer for West Dorset came in two Fridays before Christmas. We are allowed 60 people in here. We had counted 60, but she counted 62 and threatened to close us down. That's very abnormal.

"After that, beat policemen visited us four more times that night. The night after that I lost count of the number of times they came. That just feels like harassment.

"The funny thing is every other bar in town was packed except us. That in itself is fine, I have no problem with other landlords.

"What I have a problem with is that we are differentiated from the others. Nowhere else got checked like we did. The police are only ever interested in us.

"It's so disheartening, so depressing.

"I don't claim to get everything right all the time but if we get it wrong we hold our hands up and put it right. We resent being treated like a bunch of criminals."

Town Councillor Ross Kayes also expressed concerns that the police operation might be construed as too heavy handed.

She said: "No-one wants to see drunken violence on the streets, and no-one wants establishments to be encouraging it, but likewise, no one likes to see the police being too heavy handed.

"There is a fine balance between making reasonable spot checks on publicans and what can appear to be harassment.

"The police going in three or four handed and repeatedly on the same night, when there has been no trouble, just to ask for information that they could see by appointment during the day, makes me ask questions."

Ms Kayes came to the defence of Mr Hindes earlier in the year after his bar was given a closure notice because one of its CCTV cameras was being repaired.

She said: "I have asked for a special meeting with Inspector Darby in order to discuss these matters because whilst I have enormous respect for and work closely with our local police on a range of issues, I think on this one they are getting it wrong."

Bridport police said because the license for No 10 is currently under review by West Dorset District Council, they were unable to comment on specific details, but denied the bar was being singled out.

BARBARA AUSTIN MBE
Passed away peacefully in hospital on the 29th December 2012, aged 80 years.
Beloved wife of the late Norman. Much loved mother of Jane, Richard, David, Kerry and Adam and a loving nan and great-nan.
Funeral Service to be held at The Parish Church of St. Michael The Archangel, Lyme Regis, on Thursday 10th January at 11.00am Family flowers only please, but donations if desired for the Over 70's Christmas Lunch or The Christmas Lights Fund may be given at the Service or sent c/o W. G. Potter Funeral Directors, William Potter House, 5 West Street, Axminster, EX13 5NX.

BORN in Cambridge, Jake Reilly trained as a cabinet maker in Hackney, London, before moving to Blandford Forum in Dorset.

He made bespoke furniture and fitted kitchens before becoming factory manager for a company making eco-house kits. The 44-year-old is now production manager for renowned shepherd hut makers Plankbridge.

He now lives in Dorchester with his wife and two sons.

● WHAT does your job entail?

My job entails overseeing our workshop and team of eight hut-makers, ensuring that each bespoke hut is built and finished on schedule and to the exacting standards that our customers expect. I also have to build huts myself so the job has a good variety.

● WHY are shepherds huts so popular?

Shepherds huts, once a common feature of the southern chalk downlands, fell out of use as farming practices changed but have had something of a renaissance since around 2000 when they began being built again for modern uses.

The huts that we make are fully insulated, totally weather proof and can be laid out however the customer wishes. They can have additional double glazed windows fitted, single or double doors, wood burning stoves, under floor heating, electric wiring for lights and power or solar panels. We then fit them with bespoke furniture such as beds, dressers, cupboards, fold down desks etc.

They can be used as a garden room for enjoying a view, as a spare room for guests, as a home office or artists retreat, a teenagers den or a bolt hole for a quiet cup of tea away from the clamour of modern life.

● HOW much work goes into them?

They are built to a traditional design but with many improved features. They have a steel chassis, cast iron wheels made in Frome and the rest of the hut is built at our workshop in Piddlehinton. Each hut is built from beginning to end by one hut-maker, who is responsible for everything that goes in it. It takes around four to six weeks to complete. This craftsman approach gives the customer the best quality product and the hut-maker a great sense of pride in their work.

● HAVE you always liked building things?

I have always made things with wood, from helping my dad build bookshelves as a boy, to making dens and tree houses and then training as a cabinet maker. It is immensely satisfying to see a project through from beginning to end and to know that all the work has been done by you.

● IS living/work space becoming increasingly important to people?

We have built many huts for customers who run their own businesses from home, and want to have separate space from the house to do so. They may need the room in the house for a growing family and a hut allows them to continue without the expense of renting office space. The hut can always be changed internally if requirements change.

● WHAT is the most interesting living space you have ever seen?

In the mid 90s I travelled round Europe with a group of friends and met many British travellers in vehicles that they had converted such as a Panorama Coach which I helped build a kitchen for. Probably the most amazing was a removals lorry that had been converted into a beautiful home for a family of four. It had a fold-down balcony made from the tailgate, a boot room, a kitchen area, a sitting area with a wood burner, a sleeping pod for the kids and up a spiral staircase built out of old school desks complete with lifting lids for storage and the parents' bed area. I would love to take an old vehicle and convert it in to a living space complete with lots of clever storage and space saving ideas myself.

● WHAT do you like about living in Dorset?

Having moved from East London we have never regretted it or wanted to return. West Dorset is such a beautiful part of the world, with such a variety of great beaches and walks, great country pubs, delicious local beers and friendly people.

● WHAT do you hope for 2013?

In 2013 I hope to help Plankbridge build on the successes of the last several years. I would like to start playing badminton again after an injury has kept me away for a few months. All the usual resolutions; get fit, lose weight etc. but also to do more exploring in Dorset.

● WHAT objects do you always carry with you?

I always carry my phone and my Leatherman Wave multi-tool, which my sons bought for my birthday 2 years ago. I use it every single day at work and now feel lost without it.

● WHO would play you in the biopic movie of your life?

I asked my so called friends who might play me in the biopic of my life and got Danny De Vito, Brad Pitt and Martin Clunes! Make of that what you will.

Round Table gives training centre a boost

THE Matrix Centre – a new training centre, opened last year by Yeovil College – has received a £1,000 donation from the Bridport Round Table.

The donation – which will go towards equipment for their IT suite – is the second of three pledged by the Round Table over a three year period.

Bridport Round Table described the funding as an expression of the on-going support being given towards training young people in the area.

Hugh Matthews, chairman of the Bridport Round Table, said: "I was very impressed with the facilities at the Matrix and delighted that both individuals in the local area and employers will be able to benefit from the facilities, helping to improve skills, knowledge and business techniques."

Jayne Lewis, Vice Principal for Participation & Development at Yeovil College, said: "We are really pleased to have a training centre in Bridport that can offer some very localised, yet specialised training opportunities in Engineering and Composites."

"Matrix can also offer other training programmes such as Administration, IT and English and Maths for the local community on a full and part time basis."

She added: "We are also proud of our partnerships in the community with local schools, forming strong links over the past year.

"We hope the centre will continue to grow and develop over the next few years expanding the types of training on offer."

Mike Fowler, a co-director of Bridport Enterprise Supporting Training Ltd (BEST), said: "We have been very pleased to have been able to help create this innovative local training facility by raising around half of the necessary budget."

"This has been made possible by the generosity of the local Thomson Trust, whose very considerable donation has been supplemented by funding from the Sir James Dyson Foundation and now our very own Round Table.

"It is such a boost for the local community to have modern, industry focussed training facilities available."

For more information on the training opportunities available at Matrix and in the Bridport area visit www.yeovil.ac.uk or call 01935 845374.

Man has to be cut from his vehicle after A35 smash

A MAN was cut from his car following a two vehicle crash on the A35 west of Bridport.

Fire crews from Lyme Regis and Charmouth rescued the man when the Hyundai i10 he was travelling in and a Mercedes E280 collided on Chideock

Hill. The man was not physically trapped and the roof was removed in response to his medical condition.

An ambulance took the man to Dorset County Hospital where he was treated for chest pains. His injuries are not thought to be life threatening.

Two women in the Mercedes suffered minor injuries.

The incident resulted in the A35 being closed for more than four hours causing long delays between Lyme Regis and Bridport and congestion in minor roads as drivers sought alternative routes to avoid the area.

Police are investigating the incident.

FIRST DORSET CREDIT UNION

FIRST Dorset Credit Union is a local community bank, staffed by volunteers, providing a safe place to save and borrow. It is run by local people, for local people.

The aim is to help members avoid high interest rates charged by doorstep lenders and pay day loan companies.

A credit union is owned by its members. Members elect a board of directors from within their membership at each annual general meeting; they oversee the operation of the bank.

Costs are kept as low as possible by unpaid volunteers. The premises are provided by St Mary's Church and grants are received to pay for marketing and computer services from housing associations, local and district councils and the Department of Works and Pensions.

First Dorset Credit Union provides banking services to local people who may not have access to High Street banks.

The aim is to encourage members to make regular savings and to allow members to borrow at affordable rates.

To do this the credit union needs regular savers as well as borrowers, as every pound lent to someone in the local community is a pound saved by someone else.

Credit unions are regulated by the Financial Services Authority and belongs to the Financial Services Compensation Scheme which guarantees 100 per cent of your savings.

First Dorset Credit Union has 12 service points, covering Dorchester, Blackmore Vale, Sherborne, Portland, Weymouth, Lyme Regis and Bridport. These service points are operated by 120 unpaid volunteers.

Services include Standard Savings Accounts; Special Savings Accounts, with easy access so that up to £50 can be withdrawn locally in cash and larger withdrawals can be withdrawn by cheque cashable at your local Post Office; and Christmas Savings Accounts which pay out annually in November – all savings are independently guaranteed. Young Saver Accounts for under 18s are also available.

Prepaid Visa Debit Cards are the latest offering to members. Cardholders transfer money from their Savings Account onto their card, which can then be used to buy goods and services, both locally and on the internet, and obtain cash back at supermarkets.

Saver and Non Saver Loans, which include Life Assurance, covering any outstanding balance, are also available.

To join complete an application form, available at the service points or printed from the website. Take the form together with photo ID and a utility bill which prove your identity and home address, to any service point. Town Nativity cancelled

CHURCHES Together have told of their decision to abandon this year's Nativity in Bucky Doo Square.

The event draws hundreds as actors playing the parts in the Christmas story assemble on the town square via the town's main streets.

Past nativities have seen a rapping star of Bethlehem, a real baby and a live donkey all adding to the event.

But a spokesman for Churches Together – which represent many of the town's churches – explained why the plug was pulled on this year's event.

He said: "With the continuing very wet weather and poor forecast, the decision was made on the morning of December 22nd to cancel this year's outdoor Nativity in Bridport.

"We trust the community will understand that the decision is not taken lightly but that there are many aspects involved in putting on this production – such as staging, electrics, etc – that would be affected by adverse weather conditions apart from the spectators standing about in pouring rain."

Reverend Philip Ringer, chairman of Churches Together in Bridport and District, said he was disappointed that the nativity had to be cancelled.

He said: "It is a huge disappointment that we have had to cancel and it is only the second time in the long history of the Bridport Nativity that we have had to do so because of the weather."

He added: "I hope and pray that people will buy into the message of the birth of Jesus in their local Churches this Christmas."

Hanukkah celebrations

MEMBERS of Bridport's Jewish community - many from Bridport - gathered to celebrate Hanukkah in Weymouth.

About 25 people, including children, shared stories, songs and Hanukkah food, including latkes (potato pancakes) and donuts.

The event was hosted by Morris Mendoza, who owns a bed and breakfast on the Dorchester Road in Weymouth, where the celebration was held.

During the evening he told the gathering how it had been a long-held wish of his to host a gathering of local Jewish people and that he hoped to do this on a more regular basis.

Two liberal Rabbis Pete Tobias – often heard on Radio 2 – and Anna Gerrard helped host the evening.

Hanukkah candles were lit and the story of the festival was told through prose and song.

Eva Fahle-Clouts from Char-mouth, who attended, described the event as "fantastic and emotional."

If anyone in the local Jewish community would like to attend future events, they can contact Morris Mendoza on 07518 048613.

Olympic sailors receive Palmer's donation to Chesil Trust

OLYMPIC sailors Ben Rhodes and Stevie Morrison were only too pleased to receive Palmers Brewery's latest donation to the Chesil Trust, which helps young or disabled people to enjoy the thrill of sailing.

Team GB's 49er duo that finished fifth in this year's Olympics held on Dorset waters, took time out from training to receive over £7,000 from Palmers Brewery at their Bridport premises.

For every pint of Palmers' Dorset Gold sold in Dorset, 5p is donated to the trust. Sales of the golden premium ale have grown rapidly since its introduction in 1999, and is now available in bottles as well as on draught, with 5p on every bottle sold across the UK also going to the Trust. In total, Palmers has donated £23,500 since it began supporting the Chesil Trust in 2007.

The Chesil Trust assists in the provision of facilities for training in sailing and seamanship and other activities, and to date has enabled almost 11,000 children to go sailing for the first time as well as assisting talented young sailors from Dorset.

Cleeves Palmer, Sales and Marketing Director at Palmers Brewery, who donated a barrel of Palmers Dorset Gold to Ben Rhodes on his wedding day in

by Stuart Broom
stuart@pemedial.co.uk

September, said: "We're very keen to help the continual development of community sailing in Weymouth, providing opportunities to help build a sporting legacy.

"Chesil Trust events have always been a tremendous success and we're delighted to introduce more children to the exciting sport of sailing. Who knows, we'll perhaps discover the next generation of Olympians among them."

David Dunn, chairman of the Trustees of the Chesil Trust, who was also at the presentation, said: "For over five years, Palmers Brewery has been one of our most generous sponsors. Their support helps us keep running our Sail For A Fiver programme, which so far has introduced around 11,000 children to sailing. We're also able to put those who shine through the RYA course Level Two."

Ben Rhodes said: "The Chesil Trust is a great charity that offers amazing support and could be the only chance some people have to experience sailing."

Stevie Morrison added: "The Olympics is about a legacy, and the work done by the Chesil Trust is trying to help make the legacy a reality.

"Palmers Dorset Gold is close to our hearts as well, as we were hoping to win a gold medal in Dorset, and Prince Charles christened our new boat with a bottle of Palmers Dorset Gold."

Ben and Stevie will start training for the Rio 2016 Olympic Games in March and hope it will be third time lucky for their bid to win gold.

The pair is looking for sponsors and have asked interested parties to contact them through their Facebook Page, Morrison Rhodes 49er Campaign, or their Twitter accounts, which are @exmouth49er and @morse49er respectively.

ViewLetters Councillor says no shame in speaking up for employment

Send your letters to james.coles@pemedial.co.uk

■ I FEEL it necessary to respond to the letter regarding the Golden Cap Holiday Park (View From Bridport, December 19th).

The writers of the letter state "shame on" me - for urging approval of the plan because I claim it will be good for employment in West Dorset.

Do I feel shame? No, not at all - but I would feel shame if I had not spoken up for employment in this part of West Dorset.

I have previously campaigned for business opportunity and employment in the face of local opposition (e.g. Lidl, Bridport) and feel no disgrace as a result.

I had studied the proposal carefully, visited the site and driven the access roads - and on balance had decided to support it.

Although I do not sit on the Development Control Committee, I do know that councillors have to read, review and consider enormous amounts of information well ahead of the Committee meeting, in order to make an informed decision at the time.

That is why so few questions were asked. It would be impossible to assimilate the volume of data at just one meeting and I'm sure the public would not be happy if that were the case.

Another word for 'conservation' is 'management' and I believe we must manage, develop and encourage business and tourism growth in our area - 12 months of the year - for all the people of our area.

District Councillor, Bridport North Ward

New visitor centre for Hardy's cottage

THE area around the cottage where novelist and poet Thomas Hardy was born is to be transformed by a grant worth nearly half a million pounds.

The Heritage Lottery Fund (HLF) has awarded a £495,000 grant for the development of a visitor centre and education trails in Thorncombe Wood, which surrounds the cottage in Higher Bockhampton, Dorchester.

The project is a joint partnership between Dorset County Council and the National Trust.

DCC said their aim is "to bring together the cottage and surrounding landscape for the first time."

Work is due to start in September with the visitor centre due to open by Easter 2014.

Situated on the edge of Thorncombe Wood, where the Dorset countryside rangers' building is currently located, the new visitor centre will give improved access to the cottage where Hardy was born in 1840.

Visitors to the timber-built visitor centre will find information about the writer and the nearby landscape which influenced his work.

The centre will have space for school and community groups as well as a catering area with

by Chris Denne
chris@pemedial.co.uk

toilets and some retail space.

Councillor Robert Gould, cabinet member for the environment at DCC, described the project as "exciting."

He said: "It's great that we now have secured funding for this exciting project."

"Our aim has been to share the place and land that Thomas Hardy loved and drew inspiration from."

Helen Sharp, the National Trust fundraising manager, was thankful for the grant.

She said: "We are really grateful for the support of Heritage Lottery Fund for this project."

She added: "Thomas Hardy is a well respect literary figure around the world and through this we can improve the way visitors to Hardy's birthplace understand him, his works and especially how his beloved Dorset influenced him throughout his life."

As well as funding from the HLF, the project has also received donations from the Garfield Weston Trust, the Fine Family Foundation, the Kinsurdy Trust, and the Hardy Society.

County council appoints new community services director

■ Catherine Driscoll

DORSET County Council has appointed a new Director for Adult and Community Services.

Catherine Driscoll joins the DCC team after 14 years at Worcestershire County Council, the last three as Head of Adult Social Care where she was responsible for around 1,600 staff and a revenue budget of £117M.

Mrs Driscoll, 50, has also worked with health authorities, as well as stints with charities Age Concern and Relate.

The mother-of-two said: "I am passionate about public service delivering positive difference to people's quality of life and I'm very much looking forward to continuing this work in the beautiful county of Dorset."

DCC Chief Executive Debbie Ward said: "I know only too well how challenging the role of Director for Adult and Community Services is and was pleased we were able to interview a very strong field of candidates."

She continued: "I am delighted that we have been able to offer the post to Catherine."

"I am confident that she brings an excellent range of skills and experience and will lead the directorate forward in these difficult times."

Furleigh beats the French in wine tasting challenge

A SALWAY Ash winemaker's fizz has seen off the French in a blind taste-testing challenge to raise money for charity.

Furleigh Estate, the award-winning vineyard and wine producer, gave the public the chance to rate glasses of sparkling wine – without them knowing what was in their glass.

Collating the results after two days of sipping, the Furleigh team announced their wines had come out on top in the public ratings.

Over 80 per cent of the voters put one of the Furleigh wines as their favourite, with Furleigh's Classic Cuvee getting the number one slot with 25 per cent of all the votes cast.

Rebecca Hansford of Furleigh Estate said: "We made sure there were no clues."

"Without naming names some visitors actually put one French brand as their least favourite, while before the tasting they claimed it was their favourite wine."

She added: "What makes it even more interesting is the French brands cost on average 38 per cent more than their English equivalents."

"We are delighted with the results which show that English sparkling wines can now compete with the very best in the world".

Entrants were charged £5 to join in with all funds raised going to the Weldmar Trust.

Local author Elizabeth Gale is pictured above casting the first vote alongside Jonathan Panton of the Weldmar Trust and Rebecca Hansford with other members of the Furleigh team

Swimmers brave the cold for West Bay Wallow

CHILLY grey conditions were not enough to put off the hardy souls taking part in this year's West Bay Wallow.

Thousands turned out to cheer on 126 swimmers as they took to the water – some more briefly than others – in what has become a colourful affair popular with those with a taste for fancy dress.

Now in its eighth year, the event has been a fundraiser for the Bridport Round Table since 2008, normally raising around £1,700 for local groups and services via collection buckets manned by volunteers.

This year many of the bucket shakers were members of the Bridport Musical Theatre Company who were looking to raise money for their next big production, Thoroughly Modern Millie.

Bridport's Mayor and Mayoress – Councillor Dave Rickard and wife Anne – were on hand to judge the costumes. The prizes were won by Stephen Yates (adult), Abi Harding (girl) and Christian Harding (boy).

The best group costume prize was scooped by

by Chris Denne
chris@pemedial.co.uk

Morris and Jillian Fawcett from Somerset who said they try to get up to something different the day after Christmas.

Mr Fawcett said: "We normally do something crazy on Boxing Day. Last year we went body surfing in Bude, Cornwall. But I saw the sign down here this year and thought we'd give it a go."

Neil Legg – dressed as a dalmation – was raising money for Woodlands Farm Strays. By Boxing Day he had raised more than £150, describing the effort as "going really well."

Richard King from Bournemouth took part in his first Wallow last year after he was dared by his granddad. It is now set to be a regular fixture on the calendar.

He said: "It started as a dare but it's such a laugh. I'll be back again next year don't worry."

Organiser Simon Miles was glad the miserable weather had not put a dampener on the day.

He said: "Great crowds again – couple of thousand I would think – and more money raised for the Round Table."

He continued: "We raise a lot of money at events like these. This year again some of the money is going to the Bridport Musical Theatre Company, but we are always looking for more groups to give money to.

"Any clubs, groups or organisations that would like to apply for funding from us should get in touch."

Applicants can contact the Bridport Round Table by emailing info@bridportroundtable.co.uk

■ Chilly swimmers leave the water

Bar owner says police are singling out No 10

A spokesman for Bridport Police said: "Officers working on Operation Protect visited a whole host of premises in Bridport."

"Our interests are based on protecting the public and making sure premises adhere to their licensing objectives."

"That is why officers attended numerous premises."

He added: "No 10 is now subject to a statutory review process and numerous other premises have been and will be subject to licensing visits as per Operation Protect."

With the terms of his bar's license being reviewed, Mr Hines claims any further licensing conditions would force him to shut the doors for good.

He said: "We already operate under what is probably the most punitive license in West Dorset. They say they are not trying to close us, but they are ratcheting up the conditions to the extent that we are going to have to close if it goes on like this."

"We're not in it for profit – any money we make gets ploughed back into music, giving local musicians a chance."

He added: "I am retired. I don't need to run the place – it's like my garden shed, something I do for pleasure. If we closed it wouldn't make any difference to my finances. But we employ 16 people here and they depend on us for work. It's them that I worry about."

Extended opening hours at recycling centre

THE Bridport household recycling centre in South Street will be open for two extra days to help local people dispose of their Christmas waste.

A temporary variation to the site's planning permission has been granted allowing it to open between 10am and 4pm on Saturday 5th and Sunday 6th January 2012.

All types of household waste will be accepted on these days.

The centre will then revert to the normal operational hours of 10am to 4pm Saturdays (for green waste only) and closed on Sundays.

The restricted hours were introduced in April 2011 as part of the temporary arrangements to keep the site open while work continues to provide a permanent replacement facility in the area.

Symondsbury schoolchildren stage

by Chris Denne
chris@pemedial.co.uk

THE pupils of Symondsbury Primary School added colour, music and fun to the festive season with their Christmas production, 'The Peace Child'.

The youngsters staged the show at the village hall in Salway Ash to delighted parents, relatives, friends and staff.

The story – which tells of two warring tribes who learn to give up conflict after the birth of a baby – had echoes of the biblical Christmas story.

As one of the two narrators, ten-year-old Kitty took up the challenge of filling one of the show's biggest roles.

The budding thespian – who would like to be a professional actress when she is older – said: "I just really like this show. It's adventurous, it's funny, it's good – it's got everything you want in a play."

Headteacher Mr Haley congratulated the youngsters for "working really hard and making this performance so enjoyable."

Costumes, sets and props were made by pupils, parents and staff and filled the stage with colour.

Costume director Lorraine Parry gave a "huge thank you" to everyone who helped make the show look so fantastic.

Pilates; Ideal for everyone

THE Pilates technique was originally created by Joseph Pilates in the early 1900s and is still one of the most popular techniques in the world today. Originally it was called contrology because Pilates believed the mind controls the muscles. It became a hit with dancers who used his method to prevent and recover from injuries.

Physiotherapist's Osteopaths and doctors often recommend the Pilates technique. Taught by a qualified practitioner it is one of the safest forms of exercise.

Pilates is a series of meticulous, slow moving exercises designed to strengthen balance and stretch the body. Existing clients mention they notice an increase in their mobility, and relief from aches and pains. By paying attention to how movements are performed the body/mind connection can re-awaken and re-educate the neuromuscular system which in turn results in Pilates exercises helping people who have; back pain, sports injuries, postural imbalances, stress and depression, low immunity and common illnesses, headaches & tension, strokes, osteoporosis and arthritis.

Ten top tips to help you look and feel your best in this year!

TO help get you started on those small but meaningful changes, here are 10 fast and easy health and beauty resolutions - little things you can do to positively change the way you feel - and the way you look - in 2012! Try one - or all ten - and you'll see the difference before spring!

1. Never go to bed wearing make-up. No matter how tired you are, no matter how late it is, take just two minutes to slather on and tissue off a facial cleanser and your skin will thank you. Not only will it help remove surface bacteria that could encourage break-outs, most make up is drying to the skin so removing it will help reduce wrinkling while you sleep. If you can squeeze in 30 more seconds for a quick application of moisturiser, you'll see a definite difference in your face in 7 days or less!

2. Never leave the house without sunscreen on your face. I know... you've heard it all before. But I promise you that taking this two minute step will not only yield enormous health benefits (like reducing your risk of skin cancer) it's also the single most important anti aging skin care step you can take. It's true - the sun IS the number one cause of wrinkles and aging skin. And sunscreen - well it's the biggest gun in your wrinkle defense arsenal! To make using it easy and automatic, look for either a moisturiser or a foundation with an SPF 15.

3. Protect your lips - and look younger! Protect your pucker with a lip gloss or balm containing sunscreen. When lips are hydrated and protected they will automatically look fuller - and you'll look younger! You can capitalise on the protection if you swap out a matte lipstick for a high wattage gloss in a medium warm pink tone.

4. Whiten your teeth. If you haven't done it yet, this is the one resolution you MUST try! Not only is it the quickest, most inexpensive way to take years off your appearance, it can boost your confidence and give you that polished, well groomed look.

5. Clean out your make-up bag/ bathroom drawer/ vanity - and throw away any products you've had more than a year. Not only can this help prevent potentially serious eye or skin infections, it will force you to re-evaluate your make up needs - and every woman needs to do that at least once a year! When you head out to the stores to buy items, step out of the box to try a new colour or a new make up product

6. Keep up with your hair colouring.

If you're wearing a shade you just can't bear to change, make sure you touch up those roots every 4 weeks. If the time - or the expense - doesn't permit that kind of attention, then think about having your hair professionally highlighted and low lighted - a mixture of many shades and tones of basic colors like honey blonde, or chestnut brown. The look lasts for up to six months without a touch up.

7. Trade in your shower gel for a moisturising bar of soap. Did you ever wonder why the ingredients label on your shower gel is two inches long and filled with chemical terms you can't pronounce - while the ingredients on an average bar of beauty soap is just one sentence? Most gels contain chemicals, dyes, foaming agents, and lots of drying alcohol - all things your skin doesn't need. Try a daily shower with a moisturising soap instead - and see your entire body complexion come alive in just 14 days or less. And - you'll save money too!

8. Wear a bronzer all year long. Most women think of a powder bronzer as a summertime treat. Just a quick pouf of powder on the bridge of your nose, the tops of your cheeks, and round the outer rim of your forehead will give you a glow.

9. Take a calcium/vitamin D supplement every day. While many women believe calcium is only important if you're pregnant - or post menopausal - the truth is women of all ages need this vital mineral to maintain a strong and healthy skeleton - and protect against broken bones. What you may not realise: Studies show women in their 20's need this protection as much as women in their 50's! But that's not all! The latest research shows getting adequate calcium may also help keep skin looking younger longer! And since we're all staying out the sun, the vitamin D is essential to make sure the calcium you take is absorbed. Try it for a month - you'll see a difference!

10. Wear fragrance every day! Even if you're just spending the day doing laundry or cleaning the bathroom, studies show that wearing your favourite fragrance is a great way to lift your mood and keep energy levels high. Starting your day with a dousing of fragrance will also make you feel special - and that can affect how you act and react during the entire day. If you can't afford to use your favourite pricey designer fragrance every day, look for scented body lotions or anoint your pulse points with a fragrant bath oil.

TOO SCARED TO LEAVE THE HOUSE

Lee Hurst comes to Bridport on first proper tour in ten years!

LEE HURST is back on the road folks! After a ten-year absence and a few warm up dates, Lee is properly back on the road. Having kicked off in Trowbridge in September, Lee's brand new show Too Scared To Leave The House will tour up and down the country until April 2013, stopping off in Bridport this January.

Former star of BBC's They Think It's All Over, Lee will cast his comedy eyes over the many end-of-the-world scare stories from Acid Rain and Global Warming to Bird Flu and Mad Cow Disease. He will muse over the everyday dangers that face us in our daily lives. Lee believes you have a choice, stay indoors clutching a Ray Mears book or go out and laugh in the face of doom.

Lee has taken time out during his 40's to run his Backyard Comedy Club in the East End of London, but with his fiftieth Birthday around the corner, he can't wait to get back on the road and connect with his UK audience again. Fans have already communicated their excitement through social networking and members of the younger generation are now discovering him through their parents.

Recently Lee has added 'Building Developer' to his CV. He demolished his comedy club in Bethnal Green and he is developing the site into a seven storey hotel. Once completed Lee will re-open his Backyard Comedy Club on the ground floor along with a bar/pub.

Lee Hurst will perform at Bridport's Electric Palace on Saturday, January 26th. Doors open 6.30pm for 8pm start. Tickets cost £12 (plus booking fee) and are available online at www.seetickets.com or by calling the box office on 424901.

Jackie goes Jurassic for Folk Guest Night

JACKIE Oates is well known as a star in folk circles, but for those who haven't heard her, pin back your ears: Jackie Oates is winner of two BBC Folk Awards 2009, was short-listed for the fRoots Critics Poll Album 2009 with her album 'Hyperboreans', reached No. 5 - Mojo Folk Album of the Year Chart 2009 for the same album, was nominated for three BBC Folk Awards 2010 and is an Associate Artist of EFDSS. Formerly a member of the Mercury-nominated Rachel Unthank and The Winterset, she left the band in 2007 to pursue a solo career. A swathe of glowing national reviews came with the 2008 release of her album 'The Violet Hour' soon after, with the album going on to be one of Mojo's top ten folk albums of the year in 2008. The new year saw Jackie walking away with a remarkable two 2009 BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards including the Horizon Award for best newcomer, the award which had alluded her the year before. Jackie Oates, solo artist, had arrived. Newly signed to One Little Indian Records, in September 2009 Jackie released 'Hyperboreans' the highly anticipated follow-up to 'The Violet Hour' in the UK. Produced by her brother Jim Moray and featuring a title track written for her by Alasdair Roberts, it sizzled with a new confidence and maturity. She has gone on to do a main stage performance at Cambridge Folk Festival as well as performing a many other UK festivals including regular performances at Sidmouth. Jackie is also a permanent part of the Imagined Village line up and took part in the 2011/2012 Cecil Sharp Project. Her latest album 'Saturnine' was released in September 2011 and resulted in two nominations in the 2012 BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards for best album and folk singer of the year. And if that doesn't convince you, listen to some of the press.

Jackie is accompanied by Tristan Seume, who is one of the UK's leading acoustic guitarists as a soloist, accompanist and session musician, and is a regular member of Jackie's band. And support on this fabulous night will be provided by Mark Waistell, a superb singer/songwriter, who would warrant a complete page to tell you of his fascinating story, but we haven't space for that so best just come along on the night. It all happens at Jurassic Folk at the Grove Nite Club, Seaton, on Wednesday, January 9th, doors open 7.45pm. Advance tickets are £8, (£10 on the door if any left), and are available from the website www.eastdevonfolk.org or by phoning 01297 20064.

BMW reveals new version of popular Z4 roadster, for March 2013

- New entry-level BMW Z4 sDrive18i joins range
- Striking Pure Traction Design package revealed
- Enhanced level of standard equipment

BMW has revealed a new version of the popular Z4 roadster which will go on sale in March, 2013 – 80 years after we first offered such an exciting concept. Currently BMW's only two seat drop-top to be offered, the BMW Z4 now comes with a new entry-level sDrive18i, while at the same time the Pure Traction Design package boasts a level of sophistication and high specification not seen on a Z4 before.

The new BMW Z4 sDrive18i engine heralds a new entry point into BMW Z4 ownership. Priced from £27,610 OTR this new derivative uses a de-tuned version of an existing 2.0-litre four-cylinder twin-scroll turbocharged engine. Producing 156hp at 5,000rpm from its 1,997cc powerplant the car is capable of zero to 62mph time of 7.9 seconds before going on to a top speed of 137mph. It manages to do this while still recording 41.5mpg and emissions of just 159g/km.

Some of the existing engines have also received enhancements to improve their overall performance. The BMW Z4 sDrive20i comes with a 184hp engine that achieves 41.5mpg and 159g/km CO2. The model is the most popular derivative of Z4 currently accounting for 80 per cent of sales.

Further up the range and the four-cylinder twin-scroll turbocharged sDrive28i, and the six-cylinder twin-turbocharged sDrive35i and the sDrive35is offer customers greater performance courtesy of their respective 245hp, 306hp and 340hp power outputs. All cars are rated at an electronically-limited 155mph top speed.

Transmitting the power to the road is a six-speed manual gearbox as standard. Customers can also specify an eight-speed automatic with gear shift paddles located on the steering wheel, while buyers of the BMW Z4 sDrive35is have a seven-speed Double Clutch Transmission, again with gear shift paddles, as standard.

EfficientDynamics

All of the latest BMW Z4s come as standard with facets of BMW's award-winning EfficientDynamics programme. Technologies that improve engine performance while enhancing economy and cutting emissions include Brake Energy Regeneration, Electric Power Steering with Servotronic, Reduced Rolling Resistance Tyres, on-demand control of the engine's ancillaries and Optimum Shift Indicator on manual transmission cars. The BMW Z4 also adheres to a philosophy of lightweight construction with the front suspension and subframe being largely made from aluminium.

A new look

Design wise the winning formula of the BMW Z4 styling has only had minor enhancements mid-life. The headlights now include white LED corona rings and a white 'eyebrow' with additional chrome detailing, while in profile the side gill features chrome detailing and LED side repeater lights.

Building on the striking looks of the BMW Z4 is the introduction of the Pure Traction Design package. Available exclusively in Valencia Orange with an optional black contrast roof the model also comes with Sport seats in Alcantara and leather with contrast stitching, Anthracite headlining and a unique metal weave interior trim. Should a customer wish to have another exterior colour this can be offered though. The Pure Traction Design package costs from £550 up to £2,240 depending on the model within the Z4 range it is order on. SE and M Sport derivatives will continue to be offered.

Standard equipment across all models now includes DAB radio, Xenon headlights, Bluetooth, USB connectivity and Sport multi-function steering wheel. All models apart from the new entry-level sDrive18i SE come with Kansas leather upholstery as standard. Three new colours of Mineral Grey, Glacier Silver and Valencia Orange are offered while two new styles of alloy wheel, 17-inch and an 18-inch V-spoke styling wheel are available.

These enhancements build on an already strong offering. The BMW Z4 was the first roadster in BMW's history to come with a two-piece, electro-hydraulically operated Retractable Hard-Top roof that can be raised or lowered in 20 seconds at speeds of up to 20mph. The new roadster was also the first vehicle to be offered with Adaptive M Suspension. Electronically controlled dampers offer three different configurations while the ride height is lowered by 10mm for a more dynamic drive.

The standard Drive Performance Control function was another first and this allows the driver to alter, depending on model specification, the throttle and steering response, level of ride comfort, Dynamic Stability Control response and, on automatic or Double Clutch Transmission cars, gear change times.

The new BMW Z4 goes on sale March, 2013 with prices starting from £27,610 OTR rising to £45,795 OTR.

SOMERSET CRICKET CLUB

Buttler hits the heights
as Nosworthy is appointed

SOMERSET county cricket club is making the headlines as 2012 draws to a close and we enter 2013. WRITES HOWARD LARCOMBE.

Reigning PCA Player-of-the-year Nick Compton was a vital part of England's successful tour of India.

The 29-year-old batsman compiled four successive vital opening wicket stands of 50+ with his skipper Alastair Cook as England battled back from 1-0 down to take the four-test series 2-1.

Compton's performances were generally solid if unspectacular. A series average of 34.66 (top score 57, 3rd test, Kolkata) is a good start to his fledgling career wearing the three lions.

Admittedly pitches in India were low and slow and a four or even five pronged spin attack didn't make for fluent stroke-play, but a strike rate of 33.93 (against a career figure of 47.63) will see his ability to 'press-on' come under the microscope when the team travels to New Zealand in February for the three-test series.

Attention amongst Somerset supporters turned to Jos Buttler and the two-game T20 mini-series.

In the opening game in Pune on December 20th the 22-year-old, batting at number six came in England wobbling on 100 for 4 before crashing a 21-ball 34 which included three 6s.

However the hosts eased to a relatively comfortable five-wicket win.

Two days later there was better news for the tourists with Buttler unbeaten with a seven-ball 15 as skipper Eoin Morgan smashed a straight six off the last ball to secure an impressive six wicket triumph.

After returning home to the UK Buttler is joined by Somerset colleague Craig Kieswetter and the pair return to India after the festive break for the five 50 over one day internationals beginning in Rajkot on January 11th.

encouraging news

Back at Taunton there is encouraging news ahead of the 2013 campaign.

Pete Trego, who had such a magnificent 2012 season, has put pen to paper and signed a new three-year contract to stay at the County Ground.

The Weston-super-Mare born all-rounder was crowned FTI Most Valuable Player across all 17 counties after scoring 897 runs and taking 67 wickets in all competitions.

Trego will be joined by Pakistani Abdur Rehman. The 32-year-old left-arm spinner made an immediate impact in his four championship games for the county last season taking 27 wickets at just 14.18 including a superb haul of 9 for 65

■ NEW FACE:
Dave Nosworthy

against Worcestershire at Taunton back in September.

But Rehman also made the headlines off the field for the wrong reasons when he tested positive for cannabis during his 12-week spell in the country.

Guy Lavender SCCC chief executive said on the club website: "The club in no way condones the use of illegal drugs. It was heartening to see that he admitted his mistake and has been punished accordingly."

"It is now time to move on and I am very confident he will do extremely well for us next season."

A new face for the season sees the arrival of Alvaro Petersen. The 32-year-old batsman is the latest in a long line of South African overseas players turn out at the county ground going right back to the outstanding Jimmy Cook back in 1989-91.

But perhaps the most significant news is the appointment of David Nosworthy as successor to Brian Rose as Director of Cricket.

The South African, 45 on Christmas day, has previously coached the Canterbury Titans in New Zealand and the Highveld Lions in his home country.

Nosworthy tweeted: "I'm delighted & excited to be joining @SomersetCCC as their new Director of Cricket early next year! Big things ahead for sure & can't wait!"

Successful year for Tae kwondo classes

FOUR local Target TAE tae kwon-do classes celebrated a very successful year with the students attaining a number of achievements.

The classes run by Gerry Waugh achieved 100 per cent Grading Passes including 12 A Passes, eight Grading Awards, 16 Plus Passes, 13 tournament belts and two new black belts.

Awards for the Student of the Year (SOY) and Most Improved Student (MIS) at each school were also made, with Maisie Bellworthy (Charmouth) and Steve Mines (Axminster) winning the Student of the Year for the second year running, a rare achievement.

Winners: Charmouth – SOY: Maisie Bellworthy; MIS: Luke Bearpark, Bridport – SOY: Steve Mines; MIS: Rachel Kelly, Axminster – SOY: Kyle Hughes; MIS: Christian Hand, Sidmouth – SOY: Michael Elsom; MIS: Chloe Glover.

During 2012, Gerry Waugh also successfully balanced instruction with his own progress and has moved up another dan grade.

2013 sees a change at the Bridport class, with Chloe Richards, who currently assists at Charmouth, joining the instruction team.

She has been training with the Tae Kwon-Do Association of Great Britain (TAGB) since she was just 8 years old, lives in Bridport and will continue to build up the classes, currently held in Lodgers Village Hall on Wednesday and Sunday evenings.

Gerry Waugh will continue to teach at Charmouth, Axminster and Sidmouth, but will provide additional cover at Bridport from time to time should Chloe Richards be unavailable.

Full details of the times of the classes can be found at <http://targetagb.co.uk/html/training.html>. Anyone interested in taking a free trial can call Mr Waugh on 01297 639830.

WEST BAY SEA ANGLING CLUB

Christmas joy for Elliot

ELLIOT Joy had plenty to cheer about before Christmas when he won the final match of West Bay Sea Angling club's junior section's Jurassic League.

However, it was not enough to overhaul the overall winner Keiran Ellison who took the title quite comfortably from Joy despite missing out in December 22nds final match which took place on December 22nd.

The Jurassic League takes place after the main Saturday Junior series and is fished during the months of November and December.

As usual the match took place on the East Pier at West Bay and despite more bad weather predictions, eight brave souls turned up to fish.

As it turned out, the heavy rain did ease off for the first half of the match with only light rain occurring during the second period. Competitors found sea conditions difficult as the overnight rain had caused the river to spate with the result of the sea turning chocolate brown with fresh flood water and no shortage of debris and weed being carried through to the outer harbour and beyond.

As a result fishing proved extremely tough with only three fish; all five-bearded rockling; being caught by two anglers.

On top of the usual prizes the top anglers won Christmas hampers generously provided by Hilary Smith and as there was no third place, this was drawn from a hat and the winner was Charlie Lawson.

Result: 1st: Elliot Joy 86g, 2nd: James Lawrence 31g, Heaviest round fish: Elliot Joy, rockling 55g, First fish:

Elliot Joy, Last fish: Elliot Joy, Wooden spoon: Keiran Ellison

The result meant that Joy secured second place behind Ellison with the final top five in the Jurassic League - 1st: Keiran Ellison 739g, 2nd: Elliot Joy 407g, 3rd: Connor Hallett 388g, 4th: James Lawrence 318g, 5th: Tiana Foot 157g.

The presentations were made after the match at a buffet at the Salhouse, West Bay where 32 competitors, family, friends in fancy dress enjoyed a lovely buffet which this year was most generously provided by Steve and Sally from the Punch and Judy Bakery; many thanks to them for their kindness.

This year's fancy dress had a pirate theme and after the buffet the juniors were judged by guest pirates 'Robinson Wreck' from the Black Wreck Music Project and his ship mate 'Pyrate Jack'. After much deliberation Danny Cowburn was adjudged 'best dressed pirate' from Tiana Foot who was second and Charlie Lawson third.

Donations for the match and league from: Punch & Judy, Hilary Smith, Richard and the late Frank Daw, Kay Guppy, Hugh Rathbone, Cliff Rooney, Gerry Reed, Pat Claydon, Roger Guppy, Dave Chidzey, John Coombs, John and Frances Hunt and Fred Bowditch. Also thanks to Andrea Joy for all her help with kitchen duties.

The junior secretary would like to thank all those who have supported the junior section over the year and look forward to the beginning of next year's Saturday Juniors which starts on April 6th 2013. Details of this and

BOB BUCKLER RACING

Almost the perfect result

IT was unlikely, barring a disaster, that either of Bob Buckler's runners in the Bettfred Novices' Chase at Ascot just before Christmas was going to win with the highly rated Simonsig in the race, but it almost turned into the perfect race in the circumstances.

Buckler saddled Sulpis who was running his third race in eleven days following two wins at Folkestone and Fontwell, and the inexperienced Ashbourne Folly, who only returned to racing this month after being sidelined for 20 months after a potentially fatal accident in only his second race of his career.

Outsiders in the five-horse race, Buckler knew if both jumped to their potential he would pick up some rich pickings even for the minor placings.

JE Moore kept Sulpis in touch with the leader Act of Kalanis who dropped back after the sixth and subsequently fell at the next along with Dare Me. Unfortunately they badly hampered Ashbourne Folly who unseated Andrew Glassonbury at the next fence, leaving just Simonsig and Sulpis in the race.

Eventually Barry Geraghty let the Arkle Chase favourite off the bridle and he strode away to a 49 length victory.

But Sulpis maintained his superb jumping form to claim the £6,360 second prize, which with the other prize money being divided among the finishers totalled around £9k.

Buckler said: "It was almost the perfect result. Unfortunately Ashbourne Folly was badly hampered and almost knocked over by the others falling and being inexperienced in a high class fast race, he didn't quite regain his balance in time for the next fence and unseated Andrew.

"You have to remember that he went straight to chasing after returning from injury so has no hurdling experience and the fences at Ascot are big."

sparkling display

Sulpis who was once again running at the shorter distance of 2m 3f instead of his ideal 3m produced another sparkling display.

"Once again he jumped a lovely round and did very nicely.

"Simonsig is rated at 166 so unless he made a terrible blunder and over the shorter distance he was not going to really worry him, but he picked up £2k more prize money for finishing second than he did in winning his last three races."

There was less to cheer about with Buckler's two other horses that ran.

Dora Canina finished one from last in a 2m bumper at Wincanton on Boxing Day.

"Her problem is speed. She is not very fast, but Giles Hawkins who rode her said she needs three miles.

INSIDE: Comprehensive local sport round-up

Senior's plea for fans support

BRIDPORT boss Trevor Senior has made an impassioned plea to fans for support following a dismal financial year for the club culminating in the postponements of the two home fixtures over the Christmas period due to a waterlogged St Mary's Field.

The former Reading striker had already been called to a meeting with the management committee to discuss the situation which saw his budget cut, when the games against Barnstaple Town on Saturday 22nd and Boxing Day's local derby with Gillingham Town were called off.

"This has just added to the problem," said Senior. "We were looking for a good crowd at both games, particularly on Boxing Day. It not only hits the gate receipts, it affects the snack bar and clubhouse bar takings."

It has not been a happy year financially for the club which began when the club's premises were flooded in the storms of July which saw the clubhouse and the pitch under over a foot of water.

The cost of the clear up and the loss of revenue from functions is estimated to have cost the club £10k, with the clubhouse only completely refurbished in November.

The situation has been exacerbated by this season's fixture list which has seen the Bees at home just six times in eighteen games.

With cash flow seriously depleted, the club have had to use some of their savings to supplement costs, and called the meeting with Senior to discuss the situation.

Chairman Adrian Scadding explained: "We have a healthy bank balance but the situation has forced us to use some of it to cover the shortfall.

"We are looking to the future so thought it prudent to make cuts now, including the playing budget, to ensure that we maintained a healthy situation."

"Trevor offered to resign if it would help. We told him we believed in him and asked that he just take a cut, along with expenses to the players."

Senior said: "The floods in the summer and the lack of home games have taken its toll, and we still need to pay for things like the minibus to travel to away games."

"Unfortunately we have had to trim our budget in the foreseeable future which means that we cannot pay the players travelling expenses."

"We cannot afford to pay our players very much and that is mainly in helping with fuel as we have some who travel from Southampton, Gloucestershire and Wincanton."

"I have spoken to them all and explained the situation and they have been very supportive, but it is not fair for them to have to cover the cost."

"They play because they love the club, but we don't want to be losing any of them to club's closer to where they live because they can't afford to travel."

"I did offer to stand down if it would help the situation, but the club didn't want me to and see it hopefully as a short term thing and just want to protect the assets they have until things pick up."

"That's why I am calling on the fans to also do their bit to support the club."

"They are very loyal and already do a lot for the club, but it would be great if they could attend as many home games as possible, which in the New Year, because of the fixture programming and postponements will mean nearly every Saturday until the end of the season."

"I know it's a big ask, supporters are used to a home game every other week, but we need to recover some of the revenue we have lost so that we can get back to paying the players."

"Their encouragement will also help lift the players, and whilst we haven't had the best of luck recently, I am sure they will benefit from playing in front of their own fans."

The Bees latest match at Bitton last Saturday was called off early in the day because of a waterlogged pitch.
